Rationalisation of pensions of ex-army personnel

3618. SHRI KAPIL VERMA: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the number of representations recived from armed force pensioners regarding non-payment of their full dues on account of revision of pensions under Fourth Pay Commission;

(b) whether pensions of ex-NK Baljit Singh, ex-Sep. Chander, Risald, Inder

Singh (Retd.) ex-Hav. Hardwari and ex-NK Sant Ram have since been rationalised, if not, what are the reasons therefor and by when these are likely to be rationalised; and

(c) what is the number of cases where revision of pension has not been done and by when these are likely to be rationalised?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE PRODUCTION AND SUPPLIES IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI SHIVRAJ PATIL): (a) Sir, the representations from Armed Forces pensioners are received from time to time by several authorities/agencies such as Department of Pension and Pensioners' Welfare, Ministry of Defence, Services HQs, Record Offices, CGDA CDA(P), CDA(JD), Treasuries, DPDOs Pay and Accounts Offices and the Public Sector Banks entrusted with disbursement of pension. Since the representations are received by several authorities the total number is not available.

(b) Sir, Armed Forces pensioners, can be identified by their Regimental No, and some basic particulars such as the Pension Payment Order No. and date under which the pensionary benefits were Treasury Sl. or the HQ No. allotted to them by the Pension Disbursing authorities. In absence of these minimum details, it is not possible to furnish the information desired.

(c) Sir, Government orders for revision of Pension consequent on the recommendations of the Fourth Pay Commission for Armed Forces Personnel who retired prior to 1.1.86 as also those who retired thereafter have been issued The revision in individual cases is being done by the pension disbursing authorities such as the various Defence Pension Disbursing Offices Treasuries, Public Sector Banks and Controllers of Defence Accounts in various parts of the country. Out of 1.88 lakhs pensioners below officer rank with Defence Pension Disbursing Offices, the revision has been completed in all but about 8000 cases.
